

SN Iorball Sionnaigh Homework Policy

Homework is given on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

Occasionally, at the discretion of the class teacher or the principal, children are given 'homework off' as a treat or as acknowledgement of some special occasion.

- Parents / guardians of children from 1st to 6th class are required to sign homework notebook each night
- Parents / guardians are requested to inform the teacher if for any reason a child cannot complete their homework.
- Guideline target times for homework are as follows:
 - (a) Junior / Senior Infants: Children are required to read and do some simple written work.
 - (b) 1st and 2nd classes: 30 minutes approx
 - (c) 3rd and 4th classes: 45 minutes approx
 - (d) 5th and 6th classes: 60 minutes approx

Homework fosters independence, self-reliance, self-esteem, co-operation, responsibility and lifelong learning. It is an essential part of primary education as it reinforces what children learn in school. It provides a link between teacher and parent and encourages parental involvement in their child's education.

In general, homework is meant to be achievable by a child working on their own to the best of their ability. It is normally prepared by the teacher in class. It can be used to practice what is done in school or can be designed to challenge children's abilities and provide opportunities for creativity.

Homework Content

Usually, homework contains a balance between reading tasks, learning tasks and written tasks. This balance is not always possible and can vary from day to day. However, it should be noted that homework time devoted to reading and learning is as important as written work.

Homework will regularly contain reading, spellings, tables, written work, pieces to be 'learned by heart', drawing/colouring, collecting information/items and finishing work started in class. Children often feel that reading and 'learning by heart' is not real homework. Parents can play an important role in listening to reading and items to be learned, ensuring this work is done well.

Pupils should:

- enter homework accurately in homework diary (Rang 1-6)
- ensure they take home relevant books and copies.
- complete homework assignments to the best of their ability.
- present written work neatly.

Parents/Guardians should:

- Encourage a positive attitude towards homework in all subjects from an early age.
- Encourage children to work independently as far as possible. Resist over-helping.
- Encourage children to organise themselves for homework. Have all books and materials to hand. The pupil should have the Homework Journal open to tick off work as it is completed.
- Agree a suitable time for doing homework, taking into account of age, the need for playtime, relaxation and family time.
- Provide a quiet place, suitable work surface, free from distractions, interruptions and T.V.
- Encourage good presentation and neatness within a reasonable time.
- Sign the homework diary(1st-6th classes) checking that all homework is complete.
- Check that the child has all necessary books, homework journal, copies, pencils, mathematical equipment, dictionary, P.E. clothes, if needed for the next school day.
- Communicate difficulties to the teacher using the homework journal.

Teachers should

- Set homework, review assignments and provide feedback to students.
- Monitor homework to help identify pupils with special difficulties

How often do teachers monitor homework?

Ideally, teachers check homework on a daily basis. As children get older and learn to work independently, some items of homework are checked less often, e.g. every second day. Some items of homework (and class work) may be checked by children themselves, under the direction of the teacher. This can be a useful part of the learning process for children as it promotes responsibility and self esteem.

What happens when Homework is not done?

Pupils attend the supervised classroom at the first break for missed homework elements. After 6 occasions the supervision teacher contacts parents to resolve the situation. If the situation continues, then the matter is brought to the attention of the Principal who will contact the parent(s) and arrange a meeting to discuss how the matter can be resolved.
